

Early Career Lecturers Workshop Draft Programme

Tuesday 6th July 2010

10.15 – 10.30

Welcome and Introduction Pauline Kneale

10.30 – 11.00

Project Management for Effective Learning Pauline Kneale

11.00 – 11.15

Tea and Coffee

11.15 – 12.30

Topics to be determined by participants, possibly:

- Creating your own PBL case studies
- Employability and Work Based Learning
- The Sustainability Agenda
- Masters level issues
- Creative assessments
- Enterprise teaching
- ??????????????

OR

Exciting approaches to large class teaching. Effective learning in lectures

Simon Jones & Gordon Clark

12.30 – 13.15

Exploring your Teaching Issues. Your chance to discuss your learning and teaching issues, problems, thoughts etc. It's your call

13.15 – 14.00

Lunch

14.00 – 15.30

Topics to be determined by participants as above

OR

Creative approaches to teaching in small groups, tutorials, workshops and seminars

Simon Jones & Gordon Clark

15.30 – 15.45

Tea and Coffee

15.45 – 16.30

Teaching can enhance your research, Mark Reed

16.30 – 17.00

Panel Discussion, with early career lecturers – ‘what I know now that I would have liked to have known last year!’

17.00 – 18.00

Free Time

18.00 – 20.00

Dinner – Mount Batten

20.00 – 21.00

Plotting Career Paths – after dinner workshop

Early Career Lecturers Workshop Draft Programme

Wednesday 7th July 2010

You will be invited to choose one field session and one session to continue to explore your own teaching and learning issues with colleagues.

09.00 – 09.15

Tea/ Coffee

09.15 – 13.30

Exploring your teaching issues

This is an opportunity to have one to one and group discussions, and time to work on drafting, writing, and revisions to course and programme materials.

OR

Environmental impact assessment at Devon Great Consols mine site

John Maskall, Paul Lunt and John Bull

OR

iwalk – Using I technologies in the field at Dartmoor

Derek France and Kenny Lynch

13.30 – 14.15

Lunch

14.30 – 16.30

Exploring your teaching issues

This is an opportunity to have one to one and group discussions, and time to work on drafting, writing, and revisions to course and programme materials.

OR

Lab Plus

OR

GPD – using I technologies in the field

17.30

Evening meal and River Tamar Cruise