

Planet is printed using Cocoon silk and glass paper, which is manufactured by the James McNaughton Group. 100% recycled post consumer waste with FSC certification*.

The inks used to print this publication are soy-based.

Special Edition: Assessment for Learning in the GEES Disciplines

Geography, Earth and Environmental Sciences (GEES)
Subject Centre
University of Plymouth
Buckland House, Drake Circus
Plymouth, Devon PL4 8AA
Tel: 01752 584529 Fax: 01752 584880
www.gees.ac.uk

Contents

Page

- 1 Editorial
- 2 Using structured reflection to encourage more active use of feedback – Jacqueline M. Pates, Robert Blake and Ali Cooper
- 11 Assessment for Learning Centre for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (AFL CETL) resources
- 12 Using portfolio assessment to engage Level 1 Geoscience students in their subject and to develop their learning skills – Alan P. Boyle, Dave J. Prior, Andy E. Heath
- 16 Assessment Standards Knowledge exchange (ASKe) Centre for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETL) Resources
- 18 Assessment criteria and standards of the Geography Dissertation in the UK – Dawn T. Nicholson, Margaret E. Harrison, W. Brian Whalley
- 25 Diversity in Level 1 GEES Assessment: moving from less of more to more of less – Tim Stott
- 33 A Word in Your Ear 2009 – Conference Report – Derek France
- 34 Marks, remarks and feedback. Do we really need examinations? – W. Brian Whalley
- 40 Formative feedback and assessment: a review – Sharon Gedye

Page

- 46 Investigating students' responses to different styles of essay feedback – Jasper Knight
- 53 Assessment and the 'professional student' engaging with academic integrity
- 54 The use of Personal Response Systems (PRS) in multiple-choice assessment: benefits and pitfalls over traditional, paper-based approaches – Helen M. Roe and David P. Robinson
- 63 Bringing digital stories into assessment – Kelly Wakefield and Derek France
- 68 Aligned assessment of technology-mediated field learning – Claire Jarvis, Jennifer Dickie, Gavin Brown
- 72 The Great NUS Feedback Amnesty
- 74 Reflections on using digital audio to give assessment feedback – Carol Ekinsmyth
- 78 Using an individual volunteer project to provide an innovative learning and assessment experience in the field of sustainability – Mary Dengler, Diana Williams
- 83 GEES Assessment for Learning Conference held at the University of Manchester on 22 June 2009 – Alin Dobrea
- 84 GEES Subject Centre website resources

All images on the front cover and article thumbnail pictures are taken from stock photos, apart from the thumbnail images on pages 2 and 40 and the image on page 3 (taken by Michael Sanders, GEES Subject Centre)